Safe Harbor for Forward-Looking Statements

Except for historical information herein, this presentation includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties and are based on Xiao-I's current expectations and projections about future events that Xiao-I believes may affect its financial condition, results of operations, business strategy and financial needs. Investors can identify these forward-looking statements by words or phrases such as "approximates," "assesses," "believes," "hopes," "expects," "anticipates," "estimates," "projects," "intends," "plans," "will," "would," "should," "could," "may" or similar expressions. Xiao-I undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent occurring events or circumstances, or changes in its expectations, except as may be required by law. Although Xiao-I believes that the expectations expressed in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, it cannot assure you that such expectations will turn out to be correct, and Xiao-I cautions investors that actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results and encourages investors to review factors that may affect its future results described in Xiao-I's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), including Xiao-I's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2022 and subsequent SEC filings, available at the SEC's Internet site (www.sec.gov).

Full Year 2022 Financial Highlights

Net Revenues

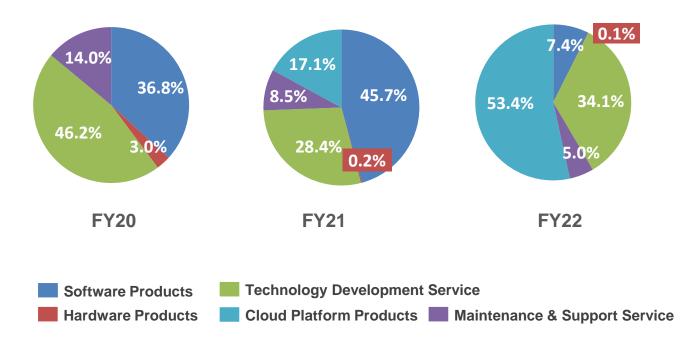

USD in millions

• The increased sales of SaaS model-based cloud platform products and technology development service.

Revenue Mix

- Stronger demands for cloud platform products and technology development service
- Change in subscription models. Non-financial customers increasingly preferred technology service, such as SaaS model on quarterly subscriptions, rather than one-time software purchases.

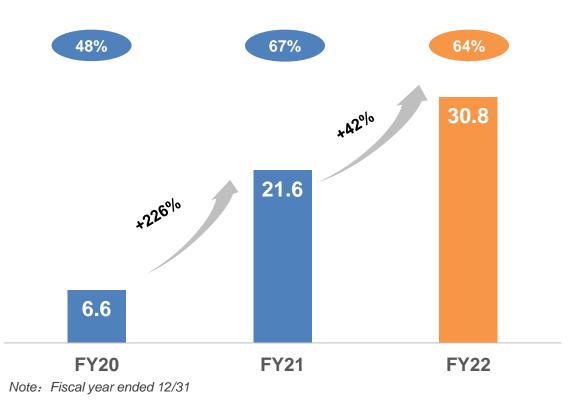

Full Year 2022 Financial Highlights

Gross Profit & Margin

USD in millions

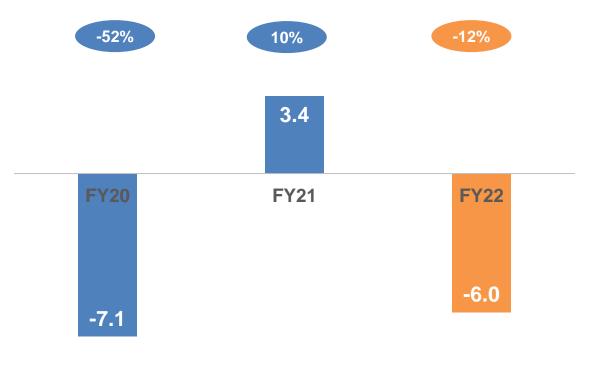

• Expansion of product applications into certain new industries that initially had relatively lower margins before applications matured

Net Income (Loss) & Margin

USD in millions

• The decrease was mainly caused by incremental R&D expenses in support of growth strategies. Excluding this expense increase, Xiao-I would be profitable and realize a substantial profit growth.
